

Be Afraid

by George McClellan

In several of my earlier essays I warned that the Marxist-Socialists-Progressives, disguised as the Democrat party had, to use a football metaphor, advanced to the one foot line. They are now on the one inch line and if the referees, i.e.: Federal judges, including the US Supreme Court, should botch the call then the odious and destructive philosophy of Obama and his Socialist henchmen will have prevailed and America will be gone forever. They are not going to give up so easily. They are too close to their socialist goal, after a hundred years, to quit now.

Here, apparently is what in store for us. Obama's chief Marxist Valerie Jarrett said: "After we win this election, it's our turn. Payback time. Everyone not with us is against us and they better be ready because we don't forget. The ones who helped us will be rewarded, the ones who opposed us will get what they deserve. There is going to be hell to pay. Congress won't be a problem for us this time. No election to worry about after this is over and we have two judges ready to go."

Obama has again revealed himself with his comment a couple of days ago: "Voting is the best revenge!" But, he has already revealed himself since before his coronation by the press. He is exactly what he says he is, a big anti-Capitalist, spread the wealth Marxist. It's not even arguable. His philosophy is anathema to our constitutional republic which is why he ignores the US Constitution with his Executive Orders and appointed Czars. We simply cannot continue to ignore his malfeasance. He was elected (unfortunately), not anointed but, so was Adolph.

Obama has many revealing faults which would have derailed any Republican President. First, he isn't the gifted orator we were led to believe without a teleprompter. He cannot think on his feet. I'm not saying he's stupid, only that when it comes to thinking he has a difficult time. For example, he wants to disarm America so what does he do? He authorized the Fast and Furious debacle, a criminal action by Obama and his Attorney general that should soon find them both in prison. The idea was to so outrage Americans that guns from the US were so easily flowing into Mexico, that we should demand the end of guns and willingly abandon our 2nd Amendment rights. Oops!

Now comes the Benghazi fiasco. Here's how I see it. The Muslims have been wanting him to release the Blind Sheik from prison. He's the one who orchestrated the first attack against the Twin Towers in Clinton's term. If our Ambassador to Libya was kidnapped then Obama could come off looking like a foreign policy statesman by trading away the Blind Sheik for Ambassador Stevens. Oops again! The lies upon lies upon lies put out by the Obama administration to cover his malfeasance boggles the imagination. It is suggested that Obama was using the Benghazi consulate as a staging point to ship Libyan arms to fellow Jihadist's in Syria. Even that, if true, should be impeachable, but the press, except for Fox and Drudge, doesn't even report it. It's more lies that even they can keep straight, and so, even without their help, the entire operation, just like Fast and Furious, slips into the quicksand of deceit, obfuscation and incompetence, and totally without consequences.

The Benghazi fiasco marks a dark and sad chapter in our history because our president failed in his duty. When two American commanders moved to intercede and were told to stand down, they were summarily sacked. Possibly, thoughts of the General McCrystal incident, when that Officer criticized Obama's inept leadership in Rolling Stone Magazine, and Obama, true to his hesitant character did nothing, moved him to sack his two Flag Officers. But, he may also have thought he was purging the Officer Corps before they staged a coup. All is speculation and lies within the parameters of truth and soon gains its own momentum revealing the truth and ineptitude of amateur politicians. America simply cannot afford to keep this creature any longer. He must go.
